International Arbitration International Representation at the Highest Level

Experience & Expertise

We have acted as counsel and arbitrator in disputes involving parties from around the world and in a variety of fields, including:

- > construction, infrastructure and engineering projects;
- > joint venture, consortium agreements and shareholders' disputes;
- > sale of commodities and manufactured goods;
- > licensing and distribution agreements;
- > pharmaceutical (distribution and R & D contracts);
- > automotive (development, manufacture and sale of automotive components);
- > intellectual property/information technology;
- > mergers and acquisitions;
- > energy sector;
- > investment disputes;
- > sports and art-related disputes.

We work to achieve our clients' objectives efficiently. Our expertise and resources enable us to do so in a broad spectrum of international cases, from straightforward matters to complex large-scale disputes. It is our policy always to explore with our clients the scope for dispute avoidance and alternative methods of dispute resolution.

Our International Arbitration Group has experience with cases under a wide range of national laws including Swiss, Austrian, French, German, Italian, English, Polish, U.S. and Korean, and also provides expertise in the growing body of transnational principles of law applicable in international arbitration.

We have acted in cases involving places of arbitration ranging from Europe to the Middle East, Southeast Asia and North America.

We regularly deal with ad hoc arbitrations (including UNCITRAL Rules) and with cases under the major procedural regimes, such as International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), American Arbitration Association (AAA), International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, Swiss Rules of International Arbitration, Vienna Rules, WIPO Arbitration and Mediation Rules and Court of Arbitration for Sport.

Skills & Resources

Our International Arbitration Group features multilingual lawyers from both civil law and common law traditions. We act as both counsel and arbitrator. With these diverse backgrounds, training and practices, we offer our clients a special combination of skills and resources that is rarely found within one law firm.
