Competition and Antitrust Skilled Advice in Relevant Markets

Schellenberg Wittmer's Competition Group comprises leading experts who specialize in advising and representing clients active in various markets in matters that pertain to competition law or have a regulatory impact.

Drawing on our unique blend of skills and resources, we advise you on competition law issues concerning commercial practices and agreements as well as on the preparation of filings for merger control. We further develop strategies in view of civil law litigations, compliance programs, and audits.

You will find our Competition Group ranked first tier by Chambers, Legal 500, Who's Who Legal, and Global Competition Review. Furthermore, Jürg Borer is considered one of the leading practitioners in the field by Chambers, PLC Which Lawyer and Expert Guide (Best of the Best 2009).

Experience & Expertise

> Merger Control

We assist on a variety of complex merger control proceedings (including a large number of stage II procedures) in Switzerland.

> Investigations

We represent clients in antitrust investigations by the Swiss competition authority, with special expertise in representing parties in dominance cases (print media and television, telecommunication, electricity, payment cards, retail, etc.).

> General Competition Advice

We advise various corporate (national and multinational) clients on competition law regarding exclusive and selective distribution agreements as well as licensing agreements (luxury watches, pharmaceuticals, technology, communication, media, financial and insurance services, etc.).

> Leniency

We handle national and international leniency procedures.

> Dawn Raids

We assist with respect to dawn raids by the Swiss competition authority.

> Compliance

We provide compliance programs, training and audits for Swiss and international clients.

> Arbitration

We cooperate with the arbitration and litigation team on aspects of competition law in arbitration cases.

> Related Areas

We handle telecommunication and energy regulatory assignments, health care procedures, public procurement matters and investigations by the Surveillant of Prices (Preisüberwacher, Surveillant des Prix).

Skills & Resources

Our Competition Group features lawyers with broad experience in Swiss competition law and excellent training in EU competition law. As a result, we are one of the few Swiss firms that offer the full range of competition law skills and resources.
