

Pre-Moot

First Schellenberg Wittmer FDI Pre-Moot

Schellenberg Wittmer is conducting the First Schellenberg Wittmer Pre-Moot to the Foreign Direct Investment International Arbitration Moot.

Date

22 and 23 October 2020

Teams from Asia and Europe will participate in an FDI Pre-Moot organized and hosted by Schellenberg Wittmer.

The teams will have an opportunity to plead various complex issues arising in the context of international investment arbitration in front of experienced arbitration practitioners from Schellenberg Wittmer and other firms, which include winners of the previous FDI Moots.

The Schellenberg Wittmer FDI Pre-Moot is organized by Anna Kozmenko (Partner), Christopher Boog (Partner), Daniil Vlasenko (Associate), and Elias Ritzi (Trainee Lawyer) with the support of other members of Schellenberg Wittmer's International Arbitration Group.

Schellenberg Wittmer's International Arbitration Group is one of the largest and foremost practices in Switzerland. Comprised of leading arbitration practitioners with extensive experience in a wide range of industries and complex arbitration, we act as lead counsel across disputes of all types and magnitudes, including large, complex, multi-jurisdictional commercial, investment and sports disputes, seated in common law and civil law jurisdictions around the world.

In particular, Schellenberg Wittmer's investment arbitration practice comprises a number of high-profile investment arbitration matters seated in various jurisdictions. We advise our clients on complex issues of investment law and arbitration, including the matters of jurisdiction and admissibility, substantive protection offered by investment treaties, and damages claims arising in the context of such disputes.
